

Gatsby Benchmark 1

A stable careers programme

What good looks like ...

- Every school should have an embedded programme of career education and guidance that is known and understood by students, parents, teachers, governors and employers.

What good looks like ...

- Every school should have a stable, structured careers programme that has the explicit backing of the senior management team and an appropriately trained person responsible for it.

What good looks like ...

- The careers programme should be published on the school's website so students, parents, teachers and employers can access and understand it.

What good looks like ...

- The programme should be regularly evaluated with feedback from students, parents, teachers and employers as part of the evaluation process.

What good looks like ...

- Schools must give providers of technical education and apprenticeships the opportunity to talk to all pupils.

At St Giles we:

"Every school should have a stable, structured careers programme that has the explicit backing of the senior management team and an appropriately trained person responsible for it"

SLT : Fiona Bell (Head of Upper School)

Trained person responsible: Helen Oliver (Transition Support Worker)
